

PRESTIGE HOSPITALITY VENTURES LIMITED
WHISTLE BLOWER POLICY OPERATING GUIDELINES

PREAMBLE

Prestige Hospitality Ventures Limited (the “Company”) adopted a Whistle Blower Policy (the “Policy”) as a part of its Fraud Risk Management Framework in the meeting of the board of directors (the “Board”) held on April 10, 2025. The Policy has been reviewed from time to time. The Policy was formulated to provide an opportunity to employees to voice concerns related to unethical or improper practices they may have observed in the Company and to provide appropriate protection to such employees. Based on the requirement under the Policy, operating guidelines were sought to be formulated to operationalize complaint handling, disposal and reporting process. Accordingly, this document lays down the Operating Guidelines (the “Guidelines”) in respect of concerns raised under the Policy. The Guidelines would also be suitably applicable to complaints received by senior management (referred to as senior management escalation cases) as detailed herein.

3. COMPLAINT GOVERNANCE STRUCTURE

3.1 Audit Committee

The Board has empowered the Audit Committee to review functioning of the Policy.

3.2 Investigating Officer / team

The Chief Compliance Officer may appoint one or more investigators for carrying out the due diligence and investigate the complaint received. Officials from the investigation function by whatever name called may be called upon to form the Investigation team. For specific cases, a Committee / group of executives or external agency may also be specifically appointed as warranted by the gravity and seriousness of the complaint. Investigation team will be independent of the group against which concern is raised. Investigators have a duty of fairness, objectivity, thoroughness, ethical behavior, and observance of legal and professional standards. Investigators are required to adopt an approach of fact-finding and analysis. Investigators shall derive their authority and access rights from the Audit Committee or from Compliance Officer when acting within the course and scope of their investigation.

3.3 Reporting to the Audit Committee

3.3.1 Reporting frequency

On a quarterly basis, Compliance Officer will provide details of the complaints received, as well as complaints under investigation, during the period, to the Audit Committee. Details would include gist of the complaint, investigation status and actions taken. Further, action will also be taken by Compliance Officer based on the feedback received from members of the Audit Committee. All complaints received, status of investigations / actions thereto, will be reported at the subsequent quarterly Audit Committee Meeting.

3.3.2 Contents to be reported

A quarterly report on Whistle Blower complaints will be submitted to the Audit Committee, containing following information:

- (a) MIS of complaints received and action taken during reporting quarter and status of pending cases which were received during previous quarters
- (b) Case wise information including details of action taken on directions of the Committee
- (c) Such other details as desired by the Committee.

3.4 Review of complaints

A senior official designated by Compliance Officer will monitor and review the progress, status of investigation, investigation reports and compliance of closure related actions on regular basis.

4. INVESTIGATION PROCESS

4.1 Investigations will be launched immediately after a preliminary view taken by the Compliance Officer on whether the allegation is supported by information specific enough to be investigated or in cases where the allegation is not supported by specific information, it is felt that the concerned matter is worthy of review.

4.2 Assigning cases to investigators

Based on the merits of the complaint, Compliance Officer will assign it to appropriate investigator/s listed in paragraph 3.2 above. The investigators shall submit their report to Compliance Officer in a time bound manner.

4.3 Investigations and Role of Investigators

4.3.1 Investigation

- (a) Investigation shall commence post instructions from the Compliance Officer.
- (b) The identity of the subject(s) and the Whistle Blower will be kept confidential.
- (c) Subject(s) shall have a duty to co-operate with the Investigator(s) during investigation

- (d) Subject(s) have a responsibility not to interfere with the investigation. Evidence shall not be withheld, destroyed or tampered with, and witnesses shall not be influenced, threatened or intimidated by the subject(s).

4.3.2 Role of Investigator(s)

All Investigators shall perform their role in an independent and unbiased manner; Investigators have a duty of fairness, objectivity, thoroughness, ethical behaviours and observance of professional standards.

Cases can be assigned to

- (a) Internal Fraud Control Team:

Based on the merits of the complaint, Compliance Officer may assign the complaints/concerns to appropriate team. The team members will submit their report to Compliance Officer in a time bound manner.

- (b) External Investigator/s:

Based on the merits of the complaint, Compliance Officer may assign the complaints / concerns to appropriate external investigator/s. External investigator may seek support from independent units / departments for on field investigation wherever required. The external investigator/s shall submit their report to Compliance Officer in a time bound manner.

- (c) Special Committee / groups for Whistle Blower investigation

In specific cases Compliance Officer may constitute Special Committee / Groups with requisite skills / expertise to investigate into the complaint / concern. The Special Committee / Group shall submit its report to the Chief Compliance Officer in a time bound manner. Investigators will maintain confidentiality about identity of Whistle Blower as specified in paragraph 7.2. The Special Committee / Group shall also maintain confidentiality about the investigation process and about the investigation findings.

- (d) Investigation by External Agencies:

External technical and other resources may be drawn upon as necessary to augment the investigation. Compliance Officer will decide on the appointment of external agencies, depending on the nature of investigation. In case of appointment of external agency, Compliance Officer will keep Audit Committee informed through quarterly reporting. Investigating agency, including investigators working for the agency, shall be bound to maintain confidentiality about identity of the Whistle Blower as outlined in paragraph 7.2.

4.4 Disciplinary Action

In case of genuine complaints, Compliance Officer will convene a meeting of the Disciplinary Committee and share a copy of investigation report (without disclosing the source of complaint). Based on investigation findings, the Disciplinary Committee would determine action against concerned within rules and regulation of the Company. The Human Resource Function will be responsible for implementation of any HR action against Subject. Based on the action taken by Human Resource Function, the Compliance Officer may decide to treat a complaint as closed.

4.5 Filing of police complaint

In case criminal breach of trust, fraud or such activity is detected during the course of investigation, falling within ambit of criminal proceedings, and if required under prevalent law / regulations, Company will initiate filing of a police complaint. Responsibility of filing police complaint will be with the investigating team.

4.6 Recovery of fraud losses / misappropriation

In case of any loss to the Company, respective Business / Operations group will initiate recovery proceedings with the involvement of Human Resource Function and Corporate Legal Function and take suitable legal recourse as may be necessary.

5. CATEGORIZATION OF COMPLAINTS

5.1 Categorization of cases for reporting to the Audit Committee

Based on conclusion of investigation, complaints will be categorized in three categories as follows:

- (a) Genuine: Allegations substantially proven. In case of genuine complaint, action will be initiated as suggested in para 4 above and will be reported to the Committee.
- (b) Could not be proven: Allegations could not be proven due to lack of evidence, incomplete information and lapse of substantial time between occurrence of the event and complaint. In case of complaints which could not be proven, no action would be taken and as such, the status will be reported to Audit Committee accordingly.
- (c) False Alarms: Allegations investigated and proven “False”. In false alarm cases, if the investigators find proof that complaint was made with malicious intent and if identity of the complainant is known or is traced by the investigators, the Disciplinary Committee may decide appropriate penal action against the complainant within the parameters of Company's Code of Conduct.

The reporting template to Audit Committee will include MIS as specified in paragraph 3.3 above, categorized as specified above.

6. CLOSURE OF COMPLAINT

6.1 Criteria for closure of complaint

False alarms and complaints which could not be proven will be considered as “Closed” immediately on conclusion of investigation and briefed to that effect to the Compliance Officer. Closure status would be approved by Compliance Officer. In case of genuine complaints, a case will be considered as “Closed” once following actions, as applicable and appropriate have been taken:

- (a) Action against person / persons against whom charges were proven
- (b) Initiation of recovery of the losses suffered due to fraud, if any
- (c) Police complaint being filed
- (d) Appropriate reporting to various authorities as required

In case of false alarm cases, closure is independent of action taken based on recommendation of Disciplinary Committee.

Only after confirmation of compliance with the above requirements, a case will be reported as “Closed” to the Audit Committee.

7. PROTECTION UNDER WHISTLE BLOWER POLICY

7.1 Any employee who makes a disclosure or raises a concern under the Policy will be protected if the employee:

- (a) Discloses the information in good faith;
- (b) Believes it to be substantially true;
- (c) Does not act maliciously nor makes false allegations, and
- (d) Does not seek any personal or financial gain.

7.2 Confidentiality and discretion

7.2.1 Strict confidentiality about identity of complainant will be maintained for complaints / concerns under the Policy. Confidentiality will be maintained during investigation as well as post investigation. The identity of the complainant will not be revealed unless the complainant himself has made the details of the complaint either public or disclosed his identity to any other authority. The identity of the Whistle Blower will be kept confidential to the extent possible given the legitimate needs of law / regulation and the investigation process.

7.2.2 Employees may send communications on an anonymous basis. If an employee opts to disclose his or her identity, the same will be kept confidential and the recipient shall not disclose the same. Disclosure of name by complainant would not have any impact on the complainant's performance appraisal, career progression, assignment of work or any other matter related to employment with the Company.

7.3 Protection offered under Policy

The Company, as a policy, condemns any kind of discrimination, harassment, victimization or any other unfair employment practice being adopted against Whistle Blowers. Complete protection will, therefore, be given to Whistle Blowers against any unfair practice like retaliation, threat or intimidation of termination/suspension of service, disciplinary action, transfer, demotion, refusal of promotion, or the like, including any direct or indirect use of authority to obstruct the Whistle Blower from continuing to perform his duties/functions including raising further concerns. The Company will take steps to minimize difficulties, which the Whistle Blower may experience as a result of raising the concern.

7.4 Retaliation

Whistle Blower will not in any way be liable to disciplinary action or loss of benefits, rights or prospects as a result of his / her action. Retaliation shall not be permissible against any Whistle Blower and the Company will not tolerate any attempt on the part of anyone to apply any sanction or disadvantage or to discriminate against any person who has reported concern.

7.5 Recourse in the event of retaliation

Employee affected by the retaliation can approach Compliance Officer for reporting the retaliation. On reporting or disclosure of retaliation, the remedies available to a Whistle Blower against whom there has been retaliation shall be determined by the Disciplinary Committee based upon the findings and recommendations of the investigators. The remedies shall be updated to the Audit Committee.

7.6 Action against employee/s involved in the act of retaliation

In case of proven retaliations, Company will take punitive actions against the respective employee involved in retaliation. Such actions may include transfers, demotions, penalties and termination. Further, the Company as a matter of general deterrence may publicly inform all employees about the penalty and disciplinary action imposed for misconduct arising from retaliation.

7.7 Action against false, malicious complaint

While it will be ensured that genuine Whistle Blowers are accorded complete protection from any kind of unfair treatment as set out in the policy, any abuse of this protection by a complainant will warrant disciplinary action. Protection under this Policy would not mean protection from disciplinary action arising out of false or bogus allegations made by a Whistle Blower knowing it to be false or bogus or with a malicious intention. Action shall be determined by the Disciplinary Committee based upon the findings and recommendations of the investigators.

8. RESPONSE TO WHISTLE BLOWER

8.1 When and who to be responded

If complainant has disclosed his identity and provided his communication details on which he / she can be communicated, then written response for receipt of complaint and initiation of action, as deemed fit by Chief Compliance Officer will be sent. In case of anonymous / pseudonymous complaints, no communication will be sent as security of the communication points cannot be assured. While communicating with the complainant, due care will be taken about secrecy and protection as specified under paragraph 7 above. Communication made with the complainant will necessarily contain date of receipt of complaint and gist of the complaint. However, the Company will have sole discretion to inform the complainant about actions initiated.

9. EMPLOYEE AWARENESS

9.1 Display of Policy
